THE "WHO" OF SCOUTING

USING LODGES
Program functions mainly in small groups.

As Scouters, we facilitate a program that functions mainly in Lodges (small groups).

Beaver Scouts

BROWN TAILS, BLUE TAILS AND WHITE TAILS
 • Beavers are titled by their roles in the Colony.
 • White Tails use shared leadership to lead their Lodges.
 • Blue Tails help White Tails.

YES NO

PROGRAM IS BY THE BEAVERS
Beavers are the architects of their own program.

As Scouters, we facilitate a Youth-led program.

SCOUTERS' ROLE
SUPPORTING YOUTH-LED

WHITE TAIL COUNCIL
White Tails gather information from their Lodges regularly and help make decisions for the Colony.

As Scouters, we need to model leadership, encourage youth input from all WhiteTails and set up the Council for success.

PROGRAM CYCLES
Adventures are planned, shared and reviewed seasonally.

As Scouters, we use the Program Quality guide to help Beavers evaluate their program.

Plan-Do-Review

THE "HOW" OF SCOUTING

PLAN
Sections plan their activities, considering the who, what, where, when and how. A risk assessment is part of every plan.

As Scouters, we ensure that activities are conducted safely. Acquiring knowledge and developing skills helps Scouters to administer great, safe Scouting adventures.

YES NO

DO
Sections practise the skills relevant to their planned adventure, then do the activity.

As Scouters, we facilitate (rather than deliver) Scouting activities.

YES NO

REVIEW
Sections evaluate and celebrate their adventures, identifying useful lessons.

As Scouters, we regularly review Beaver's development in the SPICES.

SPICES

THE "WHY" OF SCOUTING

USING SPICES
Beaver Scouts are aware of their own personal growth and progression.

As Scouters, we enable Beavers to showcase personal progression and skill development to parents and peers.

YES NO

HAPPY, WELL-ROUNDED BEAVER SCOUTS

SPICES

As Scouters, we understand the role of badges and recognize learning and personal development appropriately.

Adventure

THE "WHAT" OF SCOUTING

USING THE MAP
The Colony uses the Pond Map to identify the six Program Areas and create a balanced program.

YES NO

IT'S NEW!
The Colony pursues Adventure, trying new things regularly.

YES NO

PROGRAM AREAS

As Scouters, we understand that Adventure is not synonymous with challenge.
