The description should include as much medical information as possible regarding the nominee's condition. Where possible a medical report from the nominee's doctor would be helpful.

In addition, the description must include information advising as to how the nominee carries on to best of their abilities, duties and/or activities in Scouting despite being challenged in some respect as a result of a physical and/or mental condition or disease. The description must also explain the contribution the nominee has made to scouting despite their challenges.

A supporting letter from a person outside of scouting, who knows the nominee well, should be included advising as to how the nominee carries on to the best of his/her abilities in an environment outside of scouting. Where possible this should be copied and pasted into the section below.

Where the application may be considered for the Jack Cornwell Decoration the description must also include a statement relating to the nominee's pre-eminently high character, devotion to duty, and specific acts of physical courage, along with a report with respect to the nominee's initiative, industry and effort, obedience and discipline, trustworthiness, punctuality in attendance, smartness of bearing and appearance.
