

A Review of Your Scout Popcorn Campaign

Congratulations! Thanks for your hard work this popcorn season. You will now be able to experience even more Scouting adventures.

Now that you have completed the Plan, and Do portions of Plan, Do, Review; you are onto the final step. The Review. This review will help you reflect on your Scout Popcorn campaign and the skills you learned along the way.

Here are some questions to get you started—but come up with some questions of your own as well.

What do you know now that you did not know before the start of the fundraiser?

Did you achieve or exceed your fundraising goal? If so, how?

What would you like to improve for next year?

How did you help one another during your fundraiser?

How did you challenge yourself?

What did not work out as planned?
